

Joint workshop on no-special-fee system to ship-generated wastes in the Baltic Sea area

5 November 2012, at 12:30-18:00

Venue: Copenhagen Malmö Port, Containervej 9, Copenhagen Freeport, DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø

Final Programme

12:30-13:15 Lunch at the venue and registration

13:15-13:40 Opening & introductions

Mr. Bjarke Wiehe Bøtcher, Danish Maritime Administration, PA4 coordinator:

Welcome and brief summary of EU SBSR Priority Area 4, flagship projects, SBSR review.

Ms. Anita Mäkinen, Finnish Transport Safety Agency:

The objectives of the workshop: No-special-fee system and the HELCOM Cooperation Platform on Port reception facilities in the Baltic Sea

13:40-14:40 Session 1: The role and structure of the waste fee system in the Baltic Sea

Ms. Stina Paulin, Swedish Transport Agency

Mr. Olev-Erik Leino, EMSA: Different waste fees systems implemented in the EU

Mrs. Mirja Ikonen, TraFi: No-special-fee as an incentive

Discussion

e feedback 1 -moderated by the Baltic Institute of Finland

14:40-15:00 Coffee break

15:00-15:50 Session 2: Baltic Sea Ports perspectives regarding the no special fee system

Ms. Kirsti Tarnanen – Sariola, Finnish Ports' Association

Mr. Gert Nørgaard, Copenhagen Malmö Port

Mr. Oleg Glukhov, St. Petersburg Port

Discussion

e-feedback 2 -moderated by the Baltic Institute of Finland

15:50-16:40 Session 3: Ship-owner perspectives regarding the no special fee system

Mr. Per Winther Christensen, Danish Shipowners Association

Mr. Robert Ashdown, ECC

Ms. Eija Kanto, Finnish Shipowners Association

Discussion

e-feedback 3 -moderated by the Baltic Institute of Finland

Coffee available

17:00-18:00 Closing session & summing up

Concluding e-feedback and discussion

Attachment 1: Map of surrounding area

The venue Copenhagen Malmö Port office at the Copenhagen Freeport is easily accessible with public transportation: Bus 26 from e.g. Kongens Nytorv station or Østerport station goes to the door (20 minutes interval) and the nearest railway station is Nordhavn (S-train) some 15 minutes walking distance from the venue.

