

Translation. Only the Danish document has legal validity.

*Order no. 1159 of 2 October 2015
issued by the Danish Maritime Authority*

Order amending the order on the qualification requirements of cooks not holding a Danish certificate of competency as a ship's cook in order to serve as a ship's cook on merchant ships registered in the Danish International Ship Register

Section 1

In order no. 290 of 20 March 2013 on the qualification requirements of cooks not holding a Danish certificate of competency as a ship's cook in order to serve as a ship's cook on merchant ships registered in the Danish International Ship Register, the following amendments shall be made:

1 Section 5(1) shall be as follows:

"Applications for being issued with a certificate of endorsement for foreign ship's cooks shall be forwarded to the Danish Maritime Authority. Applications may be made via the webpage of the Danish Maritime Authority (www.dma.dk) or the so-called "Kvikskranken" (www.businessindenmark.dk). Applications shall be forwarded by the shipping company that would like to engage the person concerned as a ship's cook, cf. however section 8(2).

Section 2

This order shall enter into force on 1 January 2016.

Danish Maritime Authority, 2 October 2015
Per Sønderstrup / Mads Røddik Christensen