Order no. 3 of 4 January 2005 issued by the Danish Maritime Authority

Order amending the order on stays in boarding facilities at maritime training institutions and support for students and course participants

Section 1

The following amendments shall be made in order no. 1026 of 11 December 2003 on stays in boarding facilities at maritime training institutions and support for students and course participants:

1. Section 1 shall be as follows:

“Section 1. The following training programmes and courses may be carried out with stays in boarding facilities:

- 1) Basic training for ship’s assistants.
- 2) Basic training for ship’s mechanics.
- 3) Final course for ship’s assistants.
- 4) Final course for ship’s mechanics.
- 5) Ship’s assistant training programme for persons holding a certificate of apprenticeship.
- 6) HF Søfart (higher preparatory examination).
- 7) Supplementary training for ship’s assistants.
- 8) Ship’s cook training programme.
- 9) Fisherman’s training programme.”

2. Section 2(2) shall be as follows:

“Subsection 2. The stay shall be free of charge for participants who are not entitled to receive study grants (Statens Uddannelsesstøtte), do not receive wages or any other payment from an employer or an unemployment fund and who do not receive grants pursuant to sections 5 and 6 of the order.”

3. Section 8 shall be as follows:

“Section 8. If the training institution cannot offer one of the participants in HF Søfart who meets the conditions stipulated in section 3 a stay, subsidies shall be paid for board and lodging until the end of the quarter in which the participant turns 18 years of age.

Subsection 2. The subsidy shall amount to DKK 87 per day.”

Section 2

This order shall enter into force on 12 January 2005.
