

Translation: Only the Danish text has legal validity.

*Order no. 1008 of 16 August 2013
issued by the Danish Maritime Authority*

Order on food for fishermen in Danish ships

The following shall be laid down pursuant to section 55(1) and section 75 of the act on seafarers' conditions of employment, etc. (lov om søfarendes ansættelsesforhold m.v.), cf. consolidated act no. 742 of 18 July 2005, as amended by act no. 493 of 12 May 2010:

Section 1. This order shall apply to fishing vessels.

Section 2. The food in Danish ships shall be composed in such a way that the necessary content of proteins, fat and carbohydrates as well as of vitamins, minerals and salts has been taken into consideration.

Subsection 2. The food shall be as diversified as possible and appear appetizing.

Subsection 3. The composition of the food shall be adjusted according to climatic conditions.

Subsection 4. Fresh food products shall be used to as wide an extent as possible. Frozen food products may in this context be comparable with fresh food products.

Subsection 5. The food shall be prepared and served in proper hygienic environments.

Section 3. The food shall consist of three main meals and one or more snack meals. The food shall be offered in such amounts that all persons on board have enough to eat.

Section 4. The composition of the food shall be adjusted in accordance with the religious beliefs and cultural background of the fishermen.

Section 5. This order shall enter into force on 20 August 2013.

Danish Maritime Authority, 16 August 2013

Jan Gabrielsen / Alexander Milan