

Order No. 475 of 11th October 1983 concerning Application of the Safety of Ships, etc.
Act to Foreign Ships

01.03.1999

Translation: Only the Danish version is authentic

Order No 475 of 11th October 1983

Order concerning Application of the Safety of Ships, etc. Act to Foreign Ships

In pursuance of subsection (2) of section 1 the Safety of Ships, etc. Act No 98 of 12th March 1980 the following rules are hereby laid down:

1.-(1) The Safety of Ships, etc. Act No 98 of 2th March 1980 and the regulations made thereunder shall apply to foreign ships at Danish ports or in Danish territorial waters.

(2) Where it is considered reasonable and safe, the Government Ships Inspection Service may dispense with the provision of sub section (1) of this section for foreign ships complying with the requirements in force in their country of registry.

2. This Order shall come into force on the first day of November 1983. At the same time Order No 163 of 29th March 1951 concerning Application of the Inspection of Ships Act No 117 of 28th March 1951 to Foreign Ships and Order No 394 of 17th Number 1952 concerning Control of Foreign Ships at Danish Ports shall be abolished.

The Ministry of Industry, 11th October 1983

IB STETTER

/Torben Ginnerup